The latest social sensation, says the Washington correspondent of the Boston Herald, is that caused by the arrest of vonng man named St. Clair, otherwisknown as 'Sis' Sinclair. This young man found great enjoyment in attending the nomerous fashionable balls, perties, and receptions given here during the present Winter, attired in the clothing of a fashionable belle of the season. His "get up" was somewhat remarkable, and, strange to say, he played his difficult part part so well that he was not discovered until Wednesday evening last, while in attendance at the sociable given by the Minnesota State A-sociation at Masonie Temple. There he attended, and attrac'much attention, being as it were, one of the leading belies of the evening. He was atrested soon after leaving the Temple. He claims to be but fifteen years old, but his father says he is twenty. His dress was of the latest fashion, and he wore four button white kid gloves. His hair ornamentations were procured at the same place where other belles procure them, and were decided'y tasteful. He managed his train with elegance and ease. He has a very femin ine sppearance, and as a lady, would be called very good looking. In the pocket of the dress was found a note signed by a Southern and somewhat obscure member of Congress, who has failed to be re-elected, requestiny the doorkeeper of the House galleries "to admit the bearer at all times to the ladies' gallery," besides three letters, which he, as "Miss Sinclair," had received from certain male admirers and a female friend. The case was "fixed" at the Police Court, and no prosecution followed, though there were a great many curious persons the re vesterday morning who wanted to see the young fellow. Pay of New York Bank Officials,

The cashier of a New York bank, says a correspondent, receives from $5,000 to $8,000, but the office of the president is often considered honorary. This is but another term to express the facility for filling one's purse furnished by such a gratuitous berth. Any bank president who improves his opportunity may make Sheetings and Shirtings the office worth $10,000 a year. The paying teller receives from $2,500 to $4,-000. It is useless to place him lower than this, because he will steal enough to make up the difference. The receiving teller should receive the same payfor a similar reason. Some of these reseiving tellers eke out their salary by sorving at the ticket offices of our thea- SHEETINGS! ters. As they are good judges of money, and at such places counterfeit currency is offered, their services are of value. A North river grocer, who dealt at a certain bank and knew the receiving teller intimately, once went to the theatre and was astonished to see his friend stationed in the ticket office. He then learned that for two years the man had gone from the lank to the theater and spent an hour in this service before going home. The fee for that hour paid his house rent. Bookkeepers receive $1,500, which is no more than enough to support a bachelor. No man can think of setting up his household goods on such a pittance and there is a continued rush to obtain bank appointments. Every

When the Grand Trunk railway of Canada was completed, in 1860, many of the farmers had never heard of, much less seen, a railway, but it soon got reported around that passengers could DEGRAAF & COCHRANE, travel by it, and even cattle. A backwoodsman who was indebted to a country merchant was pushed by the latter for payment of the amount due, and the WEST TWENTY-THIRD St. only means of liquillating the debt was by taxing a fat ox to the Quebec market. For this purpose he tied his ox to the back of his cart, and drove to the railway station, a distance of nine miles. On surveying the train and seeing an iron railing around the platform of the hind car, he concluded that was the place to tie his ox, which he accordingly did, taking a place in a second-class car himself move off slowly. The speed increased ; which we are enabled to offer at very quicker and quicker it went. The poor man got very fidgety, the speed still increasing, until large drops of sweat became visible on his brow. By this time the conductor had reached his car to col lect the tickets. Nearly out of breath, the man ran to him, exclaiming :

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked. 'What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BIT-TERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health.
